

Dr Sylvia Katounta is a Lecturer in Greek Philology at the Hellenic Military Academy.

She has been teaching Ancient Greek Historiography, Modern Greek Philology, War-Civilization, Enlightenment and Greek Identity for a number of years. She is also teaching the course "War, Culture, High Strategy and Leadership in Antiquity", in which she is the academic coordinator.

She has taught at many universities in Greece and abroad on undergraduate and postgraduate programs.

She was a research fellow of the University of Peloponnese on the undergraduate Program of History, Archeology and Cultural Heritage Management.

She has also been for many years a research fellow in the Postgraduate Programs of Ancient and Modern Philology of the University of Peloponnese and on the Postgraduate Programs of Moral Philosophy of the University of Peloponnese and the National Kapodistrian University of Athens.

She holds a PH.D. in General and Comparative Philology (très honorable à l'unanimité) with the Sorbonne University.

She is an Author and Researcher.

She is a holder of three postgraduate degrees (DEA):

- General and Comparative Philology
- Philology and Civilization
- European Studies in the field of "Politics and Diplomacy".

She has been awarded a full postgraduate scholarship from ONASIO Scholarships' Foundation, with which she financed her postgraduate and Ph.D. studies at the University of Sorbonne.

She is a Philologist (B.A from National Kapodistrian University of Athens).

She has an excellent command of French and she also has a good knowledge of English and Spanish. She also speaks Italian.

Her research work and scientific work includes the publication of a monograph by Kastaniotis Publications and also a large number of scientific articles in peer-reviewed journals and international conferences.

She has supervised a large number of undergraduate and postgraduate theses.

Her main areas of interest and specialization include: Ancient Greek Historiography and Civilization, Leadership, High Strategy, War Literature.

She has given speeches and interviews on television, in newspapers and on the radio

She is a member of:

1. The PanHellenic Society of Greek Philologists
2. The Hellenic Committee for Southeast European Studies.
3. The International Association of Comparative Literature.