

Antonios Kaniadakis

Graduate degree of School of Physical Education and Sport Science of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens (1989).

Postgraduate degree in Sports Organization & Management (2014).

Water ski instructor at the Vouliagmeni Nautical Club (1995-1999).

Two participations with the Greek National Team of Reserve Officers in NATO Military Pentathlon Games and honored with an honorable mention by the Greek Supreme Federation of Reserve Officers for these participations.

Since 1992 he has been working at the Hellenic Army Academy as a teacher of Physical Education and since 2004 he has held a permanent place as Scientific Staff. He has participated in many Greek and International conferences with scientific announcements. Member of a special manual writing team, related to physical education and military physical performance, for Hellenic Special Forces schools.